NUMB. 2327

TUESDAY, DECEMBER 7. 1742.

Yesterday arriv'd a Mail from Holland.

Stockholm, Nov. 27.

THE Courier diſpatched by M. Pecklin the Holſtein Miniſter, is returned from Peterſburgh, and has brought with him an Anſwer to this Effect. That his Royal Highneſs receives with the utmoſt Senſibility, the Account of the Reſpect ſhewn by the Dyet of Sweden in their Reſolution, to his juſt Rights; that he ſhall explain himſelf more fully on the Arrival of that ſolemn Deputation which is, he underſtands, to be ſent to him; and that in the mean time he aſſures the States of the Kingdom of his Affection, and of the Zeal and Satisfaction with which he ſhall employ his utmoſt Endeavours to re-eſtabliſh Peace and a right Underſtanding between the Crowns of Ruſſia and Sweden. The Squadron which cruized this Year in the Gulph of Finland is returned to Carelſcroon, where it is to be laid up. The Vice-Admiral who commanded it has been ſent for hither, in order to anſwer for his Conduct, and ſhew why he did not execute the Commiſſion with which he was charged. His Defence is ſaid to be grounded on the Impoſſibility of performing his Orders, which were to block up the Ruſſian Fleet in Cronſtadt. In proof of this he alledges, That tho' his Fleet was ſuperior in Number to that of the Ruſſians, yet it was much inferior in Strength; the former being ill mann'd, worſe victuall'd, and the Seamen for the moſt part ſick; whereas the latter was compoſed of large Ships, excellently provided, and having their full Complement of Men. The Squadron of Gallies that attended them being in every Reſpect ſuperior to his.

Copenhagen, Nov. 29. The Court has ordered a Squadron of 16 large Men of War to be equipp'd with all imaginable Diligence, and has likewiſe ordered Three Regiments of Horſe to encamp in the Neighbourhood of this Capital. A Courier has been alſo diſpatch'd to Norway, with Orders to recruit all the Regiments in that Kingdom with the utmoſt Diligence, and a conſiderable Sum of Money has been remitted thither, for the further therance of this Service. An Expreſs likewiſe has been ſent to Hamburgh, which is ſaid to relate to the French Subſidies that are to be paid in that City. We expect with Impatience the next Advices from Sweden, by which, it ſeems, our Meaſures are to be regulated; and for the more ſpeedy tranſmitting of them to Court, Muſſirs are diſpoſed at proper Diſtances between this City and Elſignore.

Rome, Nov. 24. His Holineſs has lately receiv'd a very reſpectful Letter from the Shah Nadir, wherein he acquaints him with his Satisfaction as to the Conduct of the Miſſionaries in his Dominions. He likewiſe informs his Holineſs, that he has ordered a large Convent to be built for the Reception of ſuch as are already in Perſia or ſhall be ſent thither, and that he will likewiſe endow it plentifully. Theſe Miſſionaries are Capuchins, and this Letter was preſented to his Holineſs by the General of that Order, together with an ample Relation of what has paſs'd in that Empire during the two laſt Years. To this Letter the Pope has written a ſuitable Anſwer, in order to encourage that Prince to perform what he has promiſed.

The Holy Father has excuſed himſelf to the Count de Spada, who is Reſident here from the Grand Duke of Tuſcany, on the Head of the Brief which he demanded for raiſing a Supply from the Clergy in his Dominions. He has likewiſe given Directions for ſolemn Prayers to be made in 14 Churches, that God would be pleaſed to diſpoſe the Hearts of Chriſtian Princes to a Peace. The Auſtrian Party in this City have thereupon obſerved, that this would have been as requiſite when the War begun, and that it would be well if his Holineſs would direct Prayers to be made, that all Chriſtian Princes may be content with their own, and not play in ſuch a Manner with Publick Faith as to expoſe themſelves to the Contempt of Infidels. We have juſt receiv'd Advice from Bologna, that the Spaniards are determin'd to winter there, and that they treat the Inhabitants with greater Inſolence than ever.

Buon Porto, Nov. 27. His Excellency Count Traun having ſent a Detachment to ſupport as was generally underſtood the Troops already ſent into the Grand Duchy of Tuſcany, we were ſurprized to hear they had taken Poſt at Bagni di Paretta, upon which we immediately made a Motion in order to be nearer them, or in caſe the Enemy ſhould attempt to diſlodge them, to be at hand to join them. By this Coup d'Eclat his Excellency has cut off all Communication between the Enemy's Quarters and the Dominions of the Republick of Genoa, at the ſame time that he has render'd it impracticable for them to attempt the Conqueſt of Tuſcany without ſubjecting themſelves to great Inconveniences; and at the ſame time we are morally certain they cannot receive Subſiſtance long in the Country where they are, ſo that they muſt of Neceſſity retire ſpeedily into the Kingdom of Naples, the only Place where they can eat in Safety.

Bologna, Nov. 25. Tho' it is impoſſible for People to be wearier than we are of our Gueſts, yet there is very little Appearance that we ſhall be rid of them ſo ſoon as we expected. On the contrary, the Spaniſh Officers take all the Methods poſſible to make themſelves eaſy in their Quarters, which they take up without Ceremony, wherever they think proper, inſomuch that moſt of the People of Diſtinction in this Country have thought it beſt to leave their Seats to their Diſcretion, and to retire with their Families and Effects where they can remain in Safety.

Naples, Nov. 20. It is now become a Doubt whether there was any Truth in that Report, which was lately current here, and indeed throughout all Italy, that his Majeſty intended to ſend ſeveral Regiments that have been in Spaniſh Pay, to join the Army of the Count de Gages. This, however, is certain, that the Court now diſavows any ſuch Intention. In purſuance of the Orders lately given by his Majeſty for the due Supply of this City, ſuch vaſt Quantities of Proviſion are brought in daily, as have effectually removed all Complaints on that Head. To conſole the People for the Loſs of the late Infanta, it has been publickly declared at Court, that her Majeſty is in the Fifth Month of her Pregnancy; upon which innumerable Vows have been made for her ſafe Delivery.

Montmellian, Nov. 30. His Sardinian Majeſty has given Orders for erecting Barracks here, at a vaſt Expence, in order to defend as much as poſſible his Soldiers from the Inclemency of the Seaſon. He has likewiſe ordered a certain Quantity of Wood and Rice to be diſtributed every day for their better Accommodation. The Deſertion among the Spaniſh Troops increaſes every day, which may be eaſily accounted for; ſince their Want of Tents and Cloathing, joined to the pinching cold Weather, might tempt any Troops upon Earth to the ſame Behaviour. His Majeſty has lately received Advice, that a Squadron of Engliſh Ships cruizing on the Coaſt of Catalonia, and forcing all the Villages and Sea-ports to pay large Contributions, the Magiſtrates of that Province have abſolutely refuſed to let thoſe Regiments march that were to have reinforced the Army of Don Philip, and have diſpatch'd a Courier to Madrid with a Memorial in Juſtification of their Conduct. It is hoped, that in conſequence of this News, we ſhall ſpeedily go into Winter-Quarters.

Vienna, Nov. 28. Since the Arrival of his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Lorrain, two general Councils have been held in order to regulate the Funds neceſſary for ſupporting the Expence of the ſucceeding Year, and it is ſaid, that in the laſt they were put on ſuch a Foot as to maintain 25,000 Men more than were employ'd laſt Year, and at the ſame time her Majeſty was pleaſed to abate her Demand of 8, and to content herſelf with requiring only 500,000 Florins from the States of Lower Auſtria. All our Magazines are open'd in order to their being refurniſhed with Ammunition and Proviſions of every kind. Prince Joſeph Lobkowitz has brought the News of the taking of Leutmaritz by Storm, and we have this Moment Advice, that Baron Berenclau has inveſted Braunau, that Prince Charles covers the Siege with Part of the Army, and that Count Kevenhuller with the Remainder obſerves the French Army under Marſhal Broglio.

From the Camp before Braunau, Dec. 2. Baron Berenclau arrived here this Day from Paſſau, and we every Moment expect a Train of Artillery from thence, in order to break Ground before this Place. It muſt be allow'd, that Marſhal Seckendorff, while he was quartered here, did his utmoſt to perfect its Fortifications. He found himſelf, however, obliged to retire on our Approach for Want of Proviſions, and for the ſame Reaſon he was obliged to reduce the Gariſon from 5 to leſs than 2,000 Men; which, in all Probability, will be the Loſs of the Place, unleſs Marſhal Broglio ventures a Battle to relieve it, which we can ſcarce think he will, conſidering the Strength of the Camp occupied at preſent by Veldt-Marſhal Khevenhuller.

From the Bavarian Head-Quarters at Rieſpach, Dec. 3. Marſhal Broglio having had Intelligence that Pr. Charles of Lorrain, taking Advantage of the Seaſon, had attempted to ſurprize Count Seckendorff, who to avoid it was forced to repaſs the Inn, it was immediately reſolved to march directly, and give Battle to the Enemy. With this View Count Coigny paſſed the Vils Yeſterday Morning with 16 Squadrons and came hither, where the whole Army is expected this Afternoon; to-morrow it will continue its March to Rot; on the 5th the Head-Quarters will be at Tann, and the next Day at Braunau, unleſs the Auſtrians ſhould hazard a Battle rather than raiſe the Siege. If ſo, all the neceſſary Diſpoſitions are made, and the Soldiers are provided both with Proviſions and Ammunition. According to the beſt Judgment we are able to form at preſent, the Engagement muſt happen on the 7th.

P.S. An Officer ſent in diſguiſe to view the Army of the Enemy is returned hither, and reports that Prince Charles is very ſtrongly poſted, ſo that it will be ſcarce poſſible to oblige him to fight againſt his Inclination.

SCOTLAND.

Edinburgh, Nov. 30. This Morning died at his Houſe at Bonnington Mills, aged 83, Mr. Gilbert Stewart Merchant of this City.

Within theſe few Days there is paſſed the Seals, in favours of Baſil Murray, Eſq; eldeſt Son of the Laird of Philiphaugh, a Commiſſion of the Office of Chamberlain and Collector of the Rents, Feu-duties and other Caſualties of Superiority payable to the Crown forth of the Lands and Lordſhip of Etrick Foreſt, in the Shire of Selkirk; to which Office is annexed a yearly Salary of 500l. and 20l. to his Deputy.

LONDON.

The Dorothy-Sarah-Mary, Jacobſon, from London for St. Ubes, is loſt near Margate, the Captain and all the People except three are drown'd.

On Saturday Morning died of a lingering Illneſs, at his Houſe at Hadly in Middleſex, in the 78th Year of his Age, Andrew Hopegood, Eſq; an eminent Italian Merchant, reputed worth 20,000 l. and an Eſtate of 1500 l. per Annum in the Counties of Hampſhire and Dorſetſhire.

On Sunday Morning died, at his Houſe in Smock-Alley Spitalfields, Mr. John Lawrence, formerly an [illegible] nent Tobacconiſt, but having acquired a handſome Fortune lately retired from Buſineſs.

The ſame Day died at his Houſe in Rotherhith, Capt. Thomas Perkins, many Years Commander of a Veſſel in the Weſt-India Trade.

On Friday laſt a Diſpenſation paſs'd the Great Seal, to enable the Rev. Thomas Buttonſhaw, M. A. Chaplain to the Right Hon. the Earl Ferrers, to hold the Rectory of Addington in the County of Kent and Dioceſe of Rocheſter, together with the Vicarage of Ryarſh, in the County and Dioceſe aforeſaid.

Yeſterday the Lady of George Wright, Eſq; Member of Parliament for Leiceſter, was ſafely delivered of a Son, at his Houſe in Groſvenor-ſtreet.

On Sunday Night laſt a Fire broke out next Door to the Swan Alehouſe, Charing-Croſs, which conſumed Part of the ſaid Houſe, but by timely Aſſiſtance it was extinguiſh'd without further Damage.

This Day a High Court of Admiralty will be held at the Old Bailey, before Sir Henry Penrice, Knt. Judge of the ſaid Court, for the Trial of Thomas Rounch, otherwiſe Roues, for High-Treaſon.

On Saturday laſt in the Afternoon a Highwayman, a tall Man, long-viſaged, of a pale Complexion, very genteel, wore a Drab-colour'd Great-coat, and rode a bright Bay Horſe with a Star and Blaze, attack'd Mr. Edward Bate about three Miles this Side Coventry, and robb'd him of his Saddle-bags wherein were 15 Guineas, Linen, and ſeveral Things of Value; likewiſe of a Silver ſingle-cas'd Watch, the Maker Martin Kirpatrick, No. 72. Mr. Bate is a Printer, of Dublin, and was on his Return home from this City, where he had been to purchaſe Printing Materials. A Gentleman who travelled with him was robbed at the ſame time of his Money, Watch, and Snuff-box, by the ſame Highwayman.

We hear, the Proprietors of the General Regiſter and Advertizing Office, for their Conveniency and the better to accommodate Perſons who live at a Diſtance from the Royal Exchange, have agreed to have their Regiſter Orders and Advertiſements taken in at divers Coffee-houſes in different Parts of the Cities of London and Weſtminſter, and Borough of Southwark; by which means, and as the Price for Regiſtring and Advertiſing is ſo moderate, it may be of General Uſe to the Publick.

Wherein is demonſtrated what Remedy the Lawyers and lawful Officers may have againſt ſuch as would defame or defraud them in their lawful Practice; as alſo ſuch Relief as others may have againſt them, for their unjuſt or irregular Proceedings. With a large Preface, in Anſwer to ſeveral popular Objections made againſt our Law.

MRS. MARY BRIGHTWELL, Three Doors above the Royal Exchange Gate, oppoſite to the Swan Tavern in Cornhill, Sells, Dr. Belloſte's Famous Pills; remarkably ſerviceable in all Chronick Diſeaſes, ſuch as the Leproſy, Scurvy, Aſthma, Jaundice, Cholick, Dropſy, Rheumatiſm, Gout, Stone and Gravel, and all obſtinate Diſeaſes of the Head or Nerves, &c. in One, Two, and Three Shilling Boxes.

The Royal Dentifrice; which for many Years has been ſucceſsfully uſed by the Author for all Diſeaſes of the Teeth and Gums. It renders the Teeth not only White as Ivory, but hardens the Gums, fixing the Teeth firm in their Sockets, correcting and preventing Rottenneſs, and giving a ſweet Breath, &c. At One Shilling the Box.

Collyrium Magnum Ophthalmicum. A Medicine of excellent Uſe in all Diſeaſes of the Eyes or Eyelids. It removes Heat, Pain, Redneſs, Inflammation, Specks and Films, and prevents too great a Flux of Humours to the Part. In Tetters, or Pimples on the Face, Breaſt, or other Part, it gives ſpeedy Relief, and alſo in other external Inflammations, &c. At One Shilling the Bottle.

Dr. BATEMAN's Original and ONLY TRUE Wholeſale and Retale WAREHOUSE at the Printing-Office, facing the South Door of Bow-Church, the Lower End of the Church-Yard, from Cheapſide, LONDON.

THE Daily Succeſs which has conſtantly attended the Taking Dr. BATEMAN's PECTORAL DROPS, in the ſeveral Diſtempers of Colds, Coughs, Pains in the Breaſt, Limbs, and Joints; has gain'd them ſo univerſal a Character, that few Families care to be without them in their Houſes. —— Beſides the Diſtempers above-mentioned, there is no one Medicine, ſince the Diſcovery of the Art of Phyſick, that will give a Speedier Relief and Eaſe in all Rheumatick Pains, Gout, Stone, Gravel, Cholick, Fluxes, &c. Innumerable Inſtances might be given of the Happy Effects thereof, but we chooſe to refer to a Book, call'd, A Treatiſe of the Virtues of Dr. BATEMAN's PECTORAL DROPS, given Gratis, at the Warehouſe above-ſaid; where all Shop-keepers, &c. in any City, Town, or Village, where theſe Drops are not already Sold, may be ſupplied, with good Allowance to ſell again, by Directing or Sending to the PATENTEE,

BENJAMIN OKELL,
WM. and CLUER DICEY.

☞ The Surprizing Encouragement, which by conſtant Succeſs, theſe moſt Valuable Drops have, for upwards of Twenty Years, met with, not only in Great Britain and Ireland, but in all Parts of the Weſt-Indies, and other Foreign Countries, has lately induced ſeveral mean and mercenary Pretenders to Counterfeit them; and by imitating our Seal, Bill of Directions, and Show-Boards, with our Method of Advertiſing, as near as they can or dare to do, without making them ſelves liable, thereby impoſe their dangerous Compoſitions upon the unwary and credulous Shop-keepers both in Town and Country, for the True and Genuine Sort.

The PATENTEE and Company therefore, in Gratitude to the univerſal good Reception they have ſo long met with, and for the Safety of thoſe who for the future may be deſirous of uſing the ſame, think themſelves abſolutely obliged to give this neceſſary Caution;

Which they earneſtly requeſt may be obſerved,

THAT the Bottle they Buy is not only Sealed with the Boar's Head, but has alſo theſe Words round it, BY THE KING'S PATENT, as in the Margin; and alſo that the Names of the PATENTEES, Benj. Okell, William and Cluer Dicey, be in the Bill of Directions given with each Bottle; without which you may be aſſur'd it is notorious Counterfeit, and may be of the moſt dangerous Conſequence.

N. B. That theſe DROPS are alſo Sold Retale (as well as Wholeſale) at the Warehouſe aforeſaid, at One Shilling the Bottle, containing three Doſes.

Theſe are to Certify whom it may concern,

THAT the Two Medicines for external Uſe, which have been ſold with ſo much ſucceſs for the Good of Mankind above Thirty Years laſt paſt, for the Cure of are removed from the Minories: where they have been ſold by the Author, ſo long, and are now ſold only at Mr. Sandwell's Toyſhop, the Sign of the Griffin, the Corner of Butcher's Bury in the Poultry, at 5 s. the Parcel, with printed Directions given with them.

Theſe two Remedies need no other Recommendation than themſelves will manifeſt in two or three Days uſing, having by their admirable and even aſtoniſhing Succeſs, gained the Reputation they ſo juſtly deſerve, both in City and Country, after wearing Truſſes for many Years to no Purpoſe.

For by the Bleſſing of God, they make a perfect Cure, either on Old or Young, in a very little Time, and for a ſmall Charge, without any Pain to, or Confinement of the Patient; one Parcel is generally ſufficient for a compleat Cure, eſpecially on a young Perſon.

Many Hundreds of all Ages and Sexes have been cured by them, which occaſioned this Publication, for the Good of the Publick, that all ſuch unhappy People may be delivered from the Charge and Slavery of always wearing Truſſes.

The World might have had many Certificates of Cures of Perſons of all Ages, from Children of a few Months old, to grown Perſons of 60 Years or upwards; but that People are naturally averſe to let it be known, that they ever had ſuch an Infirmity: Yet Mr. Sandwell can ſatisfy any Inquirer of the Validity of what is here ſaid, tho' he has not had ſuch large Knowledge, by reaſon of the ſhort Time he has ſold 'em, as they from whom the Medicines are now, for good Reaſons, removed.

No Letters received except Poſt paid.
